A New Lease on Life: Prosthetic Leg and Loving Home

Determined to provide Bailey with the best possible life, Merryn sought the help of veterinarian Dr. Bob Ramey. Together, they fitted Bailey with a custom-made prosthetic leg. It was a groundbreaking moment, as Bailey became the first cat in the United States to receive a prosthetic limb.

With his new prosthetic leg, Bailey's mobility and spirit soared. He could now run, jump, and play with the same zest as any other cat. Merryn witnessed the transformative power of the prosthetic, not only for Bailey but for herself as well.
