Tips for the "What Am I?" Game:

- Encourage kids to think creatively and ask specific questions.
- Avoid giving clues that are too obvious or too vague.

- Praise kids for asking good questions and encourage them to keep trying.

The "20 Questions" Guessing Game

This challenging game tests kids' logic and reasoning skills. One player thinks of something, and the other players have 20 chances to ask yes or no questions to figure out what it is. If a player asks a question that could be answered with both yes and no, they lose a turn.

Tips for the "20 Questions" Game:

- Emphasize the importance of asking clear and concise questions.
- Encourage kids to think strategically and eliminate possibilities.
- Allow kids to ask each other questions to foster collaboration.

The "Animal Charades" Guessing Game

This hilarious game brings out the inner actor in kids. One player acts out the name of an animal while the other players try to guess what it is. No talking is allowed, only肢体语言. The first player to guess the animal correctly wins.

Tips for the "Animal Charades" Game:

- Encourage kids to use exaggerated and creative gestures.
- Provide props like hats or scarves to enhance the act.
- Set a timer to add an element of excitement.
