

Racing Storm Mountain (McCall Mountain)

Nestled amidst the pristine wilderness of Idaho's Payette National Forest, Racing Storm Mountain beckons skiers and snowboarders with its exhilarating slopes, breathtaking landscapes, and exceptional amenities. As McCall Mountain's crown jewel, Racing Storm offers an unparalleled alpine adventure that caters to all skill levels and preferences.

A Diverse Playground for Winter Enthusiasts

With over 1,100 skiable acres spread across three distinct mountain peaks, Racing Storm Mountain provides an expansive playground for winter enthusiasts. The resort's thoughtfully designed terrain offers something for everyone:

- Beginners and intermediates can glide down gentle slopes and practice their skills in designated learning areas.
- Advanced skiers and snowboarders can tackle challenging black diamond and double black diamond runs that test their limits.
- Terrain enthusiasts can explore expansive bowls, natural halfpipes, and ungroomed backcountry accessible through guided tours.

Unparalleled Vertical Drop and Breathtaking Views

Racing Storm Mountain boasts an impressive vertical drop of 2,015 feet, providing exhilarating descents and panoramic views that are simply breathtaking. As you make your way down the mountain, you'll be met with stunning vistas of the Payette Lakes and the surrounding mountain ranges.

The panoramic lodge at the summit offers a cozy respite where you can warm up, refuel, and take in the awe-inspiring scenery.
