The story begins with Tom and his father, Tom Swift Sr., working on a new invention in their laboratory. They are interrupted by a strange flying object that lands in their backyard. Tom and his father investigate and find a young alien named Shan. Shan explains that he is from the planet X and that he has come to Earth to learn about human culture.

Tom and his father welcome Shan into their home and show him around the world. Shan is amazed by everything he sees, from cars to airplanes to television. He is especially interested in Tom's inventions and asks Tom to help him build a spaceship so that he can return to his home planet.

Tom and Shan work together to build the spaceship, and they soon become close friends. However, their friendship is put to the test when Shan's parents arrive on Earth and demand that he return home. Shan is torn between his loyalty to his family and his new friends on Earth.

In the end, Shan decides to stay on Earth. He believes that he can learn more about human culture and help to bring peace and understanding between Earth and his home planet.
